

Call 111

before visiting

A&E

We'll book you a time slot if needed

If you need medical help but it's not a life-threatening emergency, call 111. Depending on your needs your advisor will either book you a time slot at your Emergency Department or at the best local service for you. This will help keep you safe and maintain social distancing.